VALEDICTORIAN, Nancy Dalrymple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dalrymple, of 11 State st., North Warren, has earned the honor of being valedictorian of the Warren high school class of 1956. She led her class scholastically.

SALUTATORIAN, Walter Hogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Hogan, 119 Cayuga ave., Warren, finished second scholastically to be named salutatorian of the 1956 Warren high school class. The graduation exercises will be held on Beaty lawn, June 5.

A SERIOUS HOTEL situation that presently exists in Warren has some relief in sight. D. C. Dodge, owner and operator of Dan's Chevrolet Inc. has disclosed definite plans for a motel to be constructed at the present site of Midtown Motors at 704 Pennsylvania ave., W. Mr. Dodge's partner in the undertaking is Orrie Beebe.

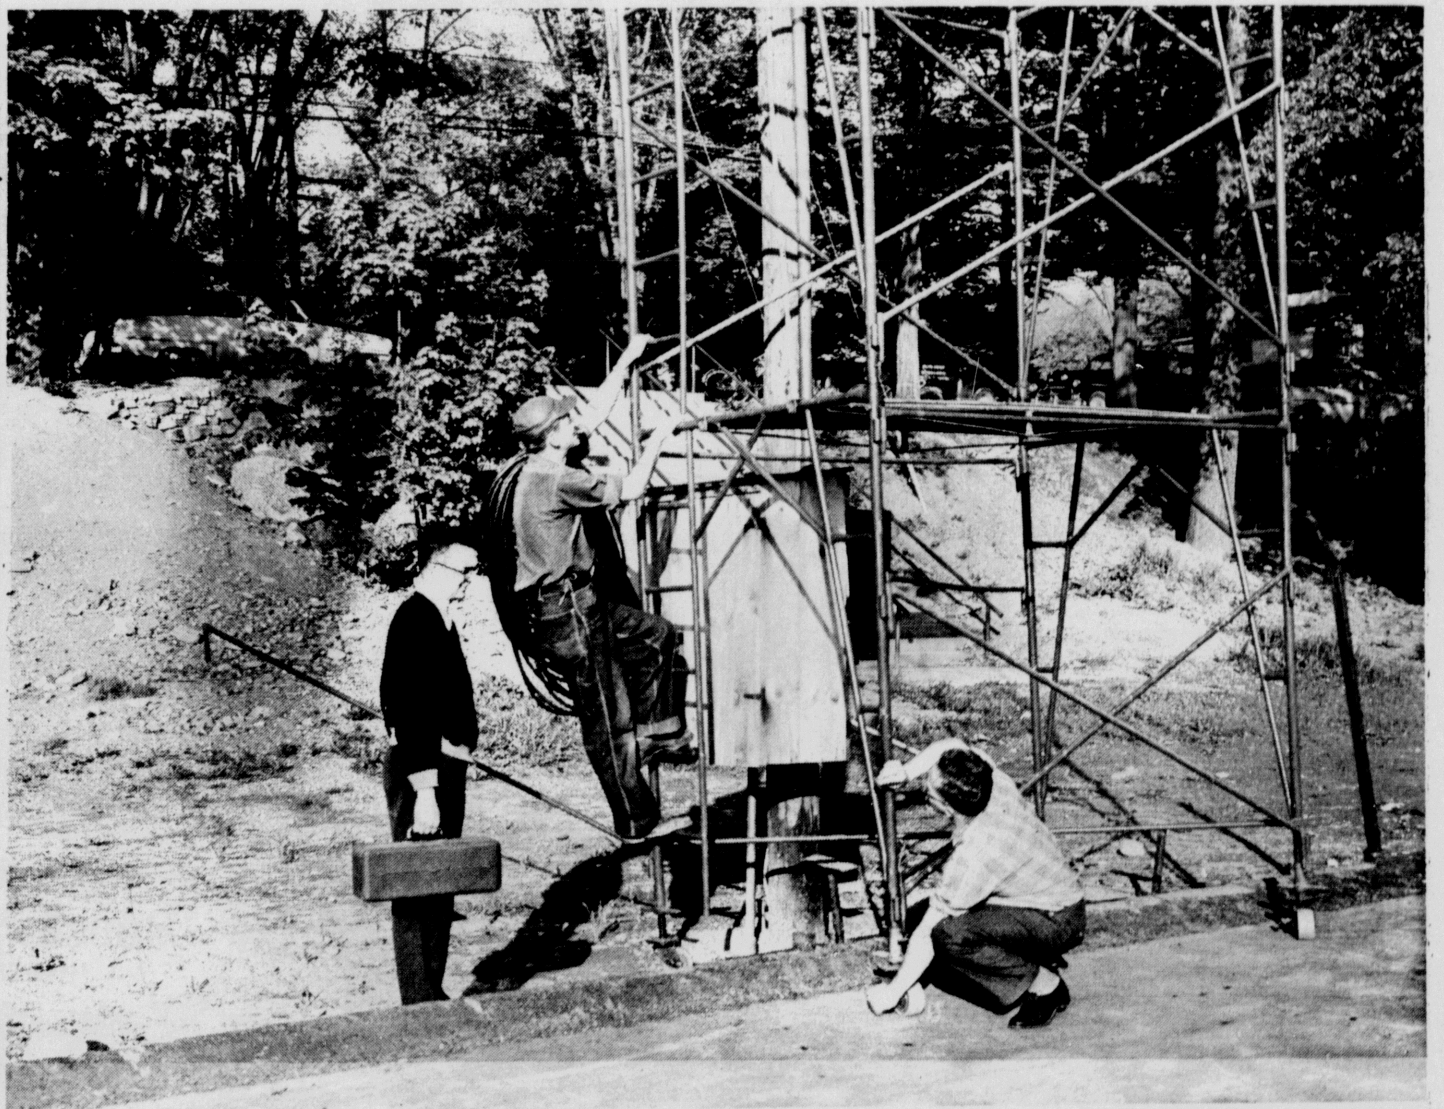

It is expected the new motel will consist of about 50 units, a restaurant and a banquet hall that will accommodate 200 people. There also will be adequate parking facilities.

The site pictured here was acquired through a business transaction with Richard T. and Lois C. Gray of Weslaca, Texas. They are former Warren residents.

The frontage for the new motel site is approximately 150 feet along Pennsylvania ave. The lot extends back 180 feet, but Mr. Dodge and Mr. Beebe have acquired additional property to make a total amount of 250 feet to date. This space also may be enlarged.

HARDWORKING JAYCEES have been taking advantage of the nice weather this past week to put the finishing touches on the Beaty field tennis courts. Here you see (l. to r.) Bill Houston, Ross Ruhlman and Bill Farnick as they start upward to finish connecting the last battery of lights Monday night. Erection of a fence, will be the next feature added.

The Jaycee courts were used to capacity this past winter as an ice rink.

ASSISTANT TEACHER Beverly See will also appear in the Beach Dance Studio recital, Dream Kitchen, at Beaty auditorium on June 11 and 12. Another assistant instructor, who will perform with Miss See, is Sally Scalise.

"THE DUTCH CLEANSERS" in Dream Kitchen, to be presented by the Beach Dance Studio on June 11 and 12, are (l. to r.) Judy Look, Debbi Wykoff, Karen Chiodo, Molly Foley, Fae Lincoln, Susan Schumann.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE at ceremonies held in St. Paul's Lutheran Church Saturday, May 12, were Arlene Romaine Rydgren and Bert Lee Mullen, both of Warren. The new Mrs. Mullen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds R. Rydgren of 204 Madison ave., and Mr. Mullen is the son of Mrs. Laura Mullen and the late Leo Mullen of 17 Eddy st.

REV. G. MASON COCHRAN

The guest speaker for the seventy-ninth annual commencement exercises of Warren high school will be the Rev. G. Mason Cochran, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Oil City. The Rev. Cochran, a graduate of Western Theological Seminary, is well known as a speaker in this area and should have an inspiring message for the 1956 graduates. The commencement exercises will be held Tuesday evening, June 5, at Beaty Junlor high school.

MISS EDNA GLASSER

Miss Edna Glasser, assistant principal of Warren high school, will retire at the close of the school term after serving on the local faculty staff for 34 years.

ASIDES

EDINBORO'S GREATEST was the acclaim accorded Hienie Anderson, of Warren, when the retiring coach, Sox Harrison, spoke at a recent banquet held in his honor. He said the greatest all-around athlete in the history of the school, where he had coached for many years, was Hienie, who later made a name as a coach and in the baseball management fields.

PAPERS FOR PATIENTS. A member of the Warren State hospital staff suggests that people subscribe for papers to be sent to the hospital. Because such a large area is served, the hospital canteen can not handle papers from all the towns and counties involved. The alternative is for friends of those who are patients to subscribe for them. Even though papers donate a bundle, there are many who will not see the one they prefer.

A PAY RAISE has gone into effect for Pennsylvania legislators, amounting to 100 per cent. They did get $3,000 for every two years. Now they will receive $3,000 each year. And in addition they will receive $3,000 for expenses.

CONFUSED ARE WE by the new signals established by civilian defense. There is an alert signal comprised of steady whistles or sirens, lasting three to five minutes. This tells you to be ready to duck. Then there is the take cover signal, which is a wavering or fluctuating sound of whistles, sirens, or whatever your community probably doesn't have.

But the one which mixes us up is the fact that there will be no all clear signal. You are supposed to determine for yourself if it is safe. This is like the gas mask drills in the army. The one command you could disobey was to "remove masks." It was up to you to test for gas in your own immediate area.

The difference was that most gas you could smell. Who is going to tell you when there is no radiation. Obviously we must equip every household with gieger counters.

NATIONAL WRITERS amuse us in their handling of the Pittsburgh Pirate story. Why the surprise? Pittsburgh has been building with new men for several years and it is time it started to pay off. Last year it showed signs of popping when the Pirates constantly lost close ones by one run. This year they are more seasoned and they are moving at last. Why so unexpected?

TOMORROW'S KITCHEN is on display in C. Beckley's Warren store. It is an all-steel Youngstown-Tappan kitchen, which you can have with either gas or electricity. The built-in models can be seen in the store now, with four colors available, and the latest in helpful accessories to make life as efficient in the kitchen as the man of the house has it in his business.

In Brief

CHAIRMAN ERNEST MILLER and members of the Chamber of Commerce tourist attraction committee took their first major action of a long range program last Friday when they adopted a project to map several scenic drives throughout Warren County. The purpose is to guide visitors through the most beautiful countryside so they can enjoy the scenery and color of the Allegheny National Forest.

A sub-committee made up of G. J. Schultheis and George Geracimos has been appointed to determine the scenic drives. Road markers will then be placed along the routes and instruction maps will be distributed to strangers through filling stations and business establishments.

The committee also decided at the meeting that Warren must begin to exploit its position as headquarters and the gateway to the national forest.

In reviewing the county's potential for tourist attraction, it was pointed out that Warren does not have a public golf course, a public swimming area and adequate hotel facilities. The committee therefore believes it must concentrate on hunting and fishing and the area's natural scenic beauty as a drawing card.

The driver was proceeding north when she lost control of her car and turned over into a utility pole. About $300 damage was caused to the vehicle.

A TWELVE-YEAR-OLD bicycle rider was rushed to Warren General hospital Sunday after being struck by a vehicle near his home on the Jackson Run road. Suffering from injuries to both knees and lacerations about the body is Robert Turner. The youngster turned his bicycle into the path of a vehicle operated by Eric Carlson of 309 Prospect st., Warren. Both were travelling in the same direction.

A CERTIFICATE OF ACHIEVEMENT for no traffic deaths and for the school traffic safety education in the 1955 Traffic Safety award program has again been awarded Warren Borough for last year. The presentation was made by the National Safety Council.

A NEW FIRM that will engage in the manufacture of automotive products and be known as The Warren Manufacturing Corp., will soon be added to the list of industries in the Warren area.

The structure to house the new plant will be erected along Route 6 at Starbrick and will be 50 by 100 feet in size.

The officers for the new corporation are Clifford Betts, chairman of the board; E. L. Betts, president; R. T. Betts, vice president; C. J. Kauffman, secretary; and Ralph Gay, treasurer.

AN EARLY MORNING accident Tuesday resulted in $1300 damage and sent a Mayville, N. Y., driver to Warren General Hospital with multiple lacerations to the face and brush burns about the body. The driver of the vehicle was Joseph H. Dornberger.

The incident occurred three miles north of Warren on Route 62 at 1:00 a. m. when Dornberger lost control of his car and overturned.

A RECKLESS DRIVING charge was placed against James C. McClelland of R. D. 1, Warren, Tuesday afternoon following a two-car crash at Market st. ext. Inattentiveness caused McClelland to crash into the rear end of a car operated by Gilbert Dahler of 113 Main st., Warren. Both were proceeding

ACTIVITY BETWEEN WARREN officials and the Pennsylvania Aeronautical Commission in Harrisburg is now being carried on to determine what aid can be received in repairing the runway of the local airport.

The present condition of the port was the subject discussed at a Chamber of Commerce meeting Tuesday with the building and lands committee of the borough and George Geracimos, borough manager, and R. E. DeBell, engineer.

While there is a feeling that something should be done to rehabilitate the airport where necessary, leaders are being cautious with their requests for state aid so not to endanger the airport project near Lander.

MORE MEDICINE DEBUNKED

The Federal Trade Commission continues to build up its list of so-called medicines and cures that it says are a waste of money and valuable time. Though we do not have room for all FTC cases, we do try to list those which may have an effect on the health of our readers. Money spent on medicine, clothing, or accessories which have been sold on the basis of unfounded claims is a serious problem to us.

Let's look at some of the latest.

K and K cold medicine will not cure colds, says the FTC, and the makers have falsely advertised that it will. They also have advertised that it will prevent pneumonia and do many other things which the FTC says are not so. It might afford temporary relief from coughs, but will not cure.

Jumping Jack shoes are not beneficial to the health of children, says the FTC. The makers have been ordered to cease using the word "health" in their advertising of the shoes.

O-Jib-Wa Bitters will not cure arthritis, rheumatism, or a variety of internal ills as claimed in its advertising.

Amber Liquid is not beneficial for all kinds of skin irritation, nor will it do much good in the case of poison ivy, as claimed in the ads.

The Acme Supreme Vegetable Juicer will not provide its processed fruits and vegetables with all the advantages which are claimed in the ads. These have ranged from protection against mental inefficiency to the prevention of abnormal hearts. (You wouldn't think this would be necessary, but people buy these things, spending millions of dollars for them instead of visiting a doctor.)

Sanforin is not a new discovery or medicine as advertised, says the FTC. And it is not an adequate treatment for arthritis and related diseases.

SCHICK RAZOR CASE

The makers of the Schick electric razor have been charged with nationally advertising a 14-day free home trial that is not honored by all retailers. They also have been charged with selling used razors as new.

The FTC claims that razors returned after the free trial or used by salesmen are redressed and offered for sale as new and unused products.

NOT GOVERNMENT SCHOOL

The Franklin Institute of Rochester, N. Y., has been charged with misrepresenting it is connected with the United States Government, as part of a scheme to sell correspondence courses for civil service examinations. Ads with lines reading "U. S. Government Jobs" are used to obtain leads for potential customers.

Salesmen following up the leads tell the customer that the school either is officially related to the government or is endorsed by it. It also is charged with setting up a sham collection agency to collect delinquent accounts.

NO GAS SAVED

The Gane Air Flow Needle or the Gane Air Jet Needle will not save gasoline, improve engine performance through easier starts and faster pickup, and will not prevent carbon deposits, says the Federal Trade Commission. These claims have been made in ads and the company has been charged with misrepresenting the gadgets' economy and efficiency.

WE GROW

Warren is popping at the seams. Empty lots are becoming a scarce item and money is flowing freely. Most of the residents are working steady and are making more money than they ever did in their lives. The town is flush.

A look around you reveals that the landscape of the community is changing. New stores have cropped up, and most of the stable industry of the community has enlarged its plants. In addition we find Sylvania playing a major part in our economy and promising to play an even larger part as a third plant grows into reality.

Just west of Warren a small plant is being built, as announced by the daily last week. It will be called the Warren Manufacturing Corporation and will manufacture automotive products, many of which are the product of Joe De Frees who comes up with a constant flow of new valves, couplings, and other items that are playing a major role in the tank car industry.

Clifford R. Betts is chairman of the new corporation's board. E. L. Betts is the president. It will be located on Route 6, two miles west of Warren on a 6-acre plot of land, and will be 50 by 100 feet in size. It will employ fifteen employees at the start and may grow to a staff of fifty.

This may not sound like much, but if you add fifty men to the payroll of Warren you will find another $200,000 available to local trade, and all of it will be fresh money from outside buyers. In addition the business will be making a profit and will be spending many thousand for maintenance and supplies.

Little communities in the area which do so little about adding plants seem unable to comprehend how much even a small plant means to their economy. And all of them have much to offer in this day of diffused building. What comes to Warren county, any corner of it, helps all of us.

TE LA DI O

THE SURPRISE air raid test date to be held in June we do not know, but there may be some connection with the Conelrad test which will be held June 16. There also will be one July 20.

All stations for the first time are being asked to participate. It will occur at 11:30 a. m. on the June date, 10:30 our time. Stations will discontinue their scheduled programs, and will announce call letters. There also will be five-second cut-offs.

Next year there will be an alert which will include everything that peeps, amateurs, taxicabs, railroads, and other mediums that use the airwaves.

Purpose of Conelrad, as you probably know by now, is to make it impossible for invading planes to use a station's frequency to beam it into a target, or for navigational purposes.

BETTER TV may result from a decision of the FCC last week. It permits the use of translators, if they do not interfere with the quality of existing stations. This means that for $1,000 a translator could be erected that would pick up and rebroadcast signals from Erie, Buffalo, or other cities to give a strong picture. Programs cannot originate at the translator site.

They must be limited to the top 14 uhf channels, and may be operated remotely. The power limitation will be 10 w (up to 100 w radiated power). Such may be used on and after July 2.

RADIO IS HURTING today. Despite claims of growth there is little doubt that the cash register of the nation's stations are not ringing as merrily as they did before tv. Since 1949 when tv started to make itself felt in the fringe areas, radio receipts for advertising have dropped to about 36 per cent of what it was at that time! Television has increased 228 per cent.

The effect on other mediums has not been damaging. Newspaper advertising has gone up about 100 per cent, and the same is true of business papers. Magazines have seen an increase of over fifty per cent, and even outdoor advertising, such as billboards, has jumped about fifty per cent.

With advertising booming, there is only one reason radio has faded in the bank account while actually selling more radios. And that is the large tv audience which has developed. Radio is used for cars and many other special spots, but when it is placed alongside tv, it is lucky to be turned on in the majority of homes.

Or at least the major spenders of advertising dollars are so convinced.

COLOR TV WAS GIVEN a boost in the area this week when WBEN added ten "live" locally originated color programs. This gives it five hours of color programs a week. Included are Marion Roberts Presents, Meet the Millers, and Colorcast.

DOING WELL IN CANADA is WBEN, and probably WGR. In the monthly report on receivers sold in eight western New York counties, it is revealed that there are 530,881 vhf sets. In the same area there are 122,626 uhf sets. This means a total of about 653,000 sets, not counting Pennsylvania.

According to the Radio-Television Manufacturers Association of Canada, the area which is served by WBEN-TV in that country has 649,116 tv receivers.

Obviously NBC gave up quite a market when it dropped WGR and bought a uhf station. Another reason why we may see translators entering the area.

PIRATE FANS of the area are thinking of tickets and trips south now that the team is the talk of the baseball world. There will be eight days when the Pirates won't be at home but you can watch them play if your set brings in KDKA. The Atlantic Refining Company, Plymouth, and Otto Milk company will sponsor televised games, with Bob Prince announcing. The next one will be at St. Louis on June 10, at 2:30. Then you will see them at New York on July 8 at 2:00. Cincinnati will be visited July 22, at 2:30, and New York, August 19 at 2:00.

It will be Chicago, August 26, at 2:30, and Philadelphia, September 9 at 1:00. It could be a mighty big one on September 29, when Brooklyn is the host, at 2:00. There also will be another game which is undecided.

QUICK DIALING

GOOD RECEPTION of the Presidential conventions is assured most viewers in this area. CBS will handle it and that means Channel 4.

CHANGE TONIGHT the title of your 11:15 play over KDKA. It will be Joel McCrea and Jean Arthur in The More the Merrier.

ALL STAR FOOTBALL will be handled on Channel 2 for most of us. WGR will have it through ABC on August 10, when the Cleveland Browns take on the College All Stars. The brewery which handles Wednesday night fights, will have it, thinks Ol' Howard in his weekly column.

SCHULTZY GIVES IT the big try this evening when her boss, Bob Cummings, attends a masquerade party in disguise to make love to as many girls as possible. You can see Schultzy's mind working right now.

JACK BENNY meets Mary for the first time in a department store, when she was a sales clerk and he a struggling vaudevillian. See it Sunday night.

PIXIE HITCHCOCK brings mink into his Sunday drama this week, with Ruth Hussey wearing it. Intriguing enough?

OUTDOORS

WILD TURKEYS WITHSTOOD RIGORS OF WINTER

Pennsylvania's great flock of wild turkeys came through last winter in fine shape, reports from Game Commission field officers indicate.

Some wild turkey loss must be expected in any winter, but discoveries of dead turkeys last winter and this spring were few and far between.

The State game authorities attribute the negligible loss to two causes, even in the north-central counties where wild turkeys are most numerous and the ravages of winter were heaviest. First, the turkeys in the forests of Pennsylvania are hardy, truly wild stock. Also, the Game Commission's extensive corn feeding campaign last winter was augmented extensively by similar efforts by sportsmen and farmers. This was particularly effective where natural foods were scarce or inaccessible due to ice and snow in the areas where there were large concentrations of the great birds.

WINTER-KILLED DEER

The number of deer that died of malnutrition because of overbrowsing areas in Pennsylvania last winter has been determined at about 2500. This is a reasonably low figure, the Game Commission and informed outdoorsmen believe. The count was made by game protectors and field research men. Early season trout fishermen contributed, in many cases, to the compilation.

In some of the southern and central counties little or no die-off was noted. The toll was highest in northern counties, particularly in those where for years there were far too many deer for the food available.

In the Southwest Division only "a few" deer were reported as winter deaths. The Southcentral Division reported the die-off as "low", and the Southeast Division said "No deer loss last winter".

The Northwest Division reported more than 400 of the big game animals died in that section. The Northeast Division listed its deer loss at some 240. But the highest number, over 1900, succumbed in the Northcentral Division.

Northcentral Counties, in which the greatest losses occurred, were: southern Potter, Cameron, eastern Elk, northeastern Clearfield, northwestern Clinton, and the Pine Creek area of Lycoming and Tioga.

Other States suffered in like fashion. Michigan, for example, has reported: "Losses to the deer herd in the northern lower peninsula during last fall and winter totaled an estimated 41,650 animals, according to a Conservation Department survey. The comparative figure a year ago was 32,500. (The survey losses to the upper peninsula deer herd was delayed by weather and not given.) Starvation led all other causes of death, with 16,600. Other causes reported in the 1956 survey were: shot, 5,680; dog kill, 3,420; accident, 1,080; unknown, 14,870. Of the latter the survey included the probability that shooting and disease took a large number of these animals."

4-LANE HIGHWAYS HURT WILDLIFE

Many motorists have remarked on the exceptional kill of small game on Pennsylvania highways this spring. A partial reason for this could be the large hold-over of birds and animals, according to frightened creature into action and continued life.

NEW TROLLING RULES

The Pennsylvania Fish Commission during its recent meeting at Bellefonte further modified fishing rules and regulations in line with its policy of extending fishing opportunities in the Commonwealth. According to William Voigt, Jr., Executive Director of the Commission, trolling with the use of a motor was extended to all inland water where motorboats are currently permitted.

Heretofore, trolling from motorboats was allowed only on rivers, Conneaut Lake, Wallenpaupack Lake, Youghiogheny Reservoir, Pymatuning Lake from the main dam near Jamestown to the causeway near Espsville, and the Tionesta Flood Control Reservoir from the bridge at Nebraska, downstream to within one-quarter mile of the dam.

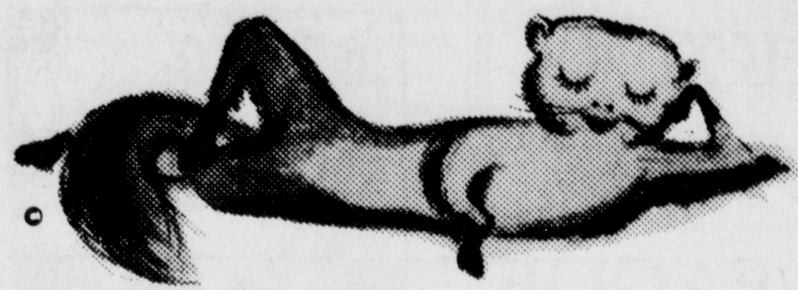

The new ruling does not apply to state owned lakes on which motors are not allowed, except those used by the respective agencies for management purposes. Nor does it apply to privately owned lakes whose owners choose to prohibit power driven craft.

WALLEYE SEASON

The walleye figured in another step toward liberalizing the Commonwealth's angling regulations, according to an announcement early this week by William Voigt, Jr., Executive Director of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission.

Effective on May 30 this year, the popular game fish referred to variously as the walleyed-pike, pike-perch or Susquehanna salmon, will become fair game in all inland waters except two. The season will close on November 30.

The two exceptions to this new ruling adopted by the Pennsylvania Fish Commission during its recent meeting at Bellefonte are the previously established seasons on Pymatuning Lake and the Lower Susquehanna River. ### ELKS LOSE OPENER

The Jamestown Moose blasted out a 4-1 victory over the Warren Elks as the Penn-York baseball league staged its 1956 opener at the Warren State hospital field Saturday afternoon.

Jamestown drew first blood in the contest with one run in the initial inning and then wrapped it up with three more in the fifth after the local nine tied it up with a single tally in the fourth.

Crespy hurled two-hit ball for the winners. It was Gray on the mound for Warren. He let up five hits over the distance.

The Elks' only safe hits were off the bats of Manager Don Gheres and Chuck Reese.

POWLEY FIFTH AT STATE

John Powley, Warren high's crack miler, succeeded in gaining a fifth place in state competition at the Pennsylvania State University Saturday but failed to show in the 880-yard event. The best mile was run by Terry Wade of Lewistown in 4:27.4.

The Warren 880-yard relay team, composed of Greco, Suppa, Casler and Lindquist, did not show in that event.

Erie Academy's Baker was third in both the 120-yard high hurdles and the 180-yard low hurdles. His teammate, Stahon, was in a three-way tie for fourth place in the pole vault. The only other District 10 representative to finish in the top five was Franklin's Cozad. He ended in a tie for fifth in the 440-yard run.

EAGLES PLACE AT STATE

Youngsville high's thinclads, who performed in the state Class B track and field meet at University Park Saturday, gained recognition in three events.

The District 10 champion's Joe Kulbacki ran a third in the 880-yard sprint. Finishing fourth was the Eagles mile-relay squad -- Kulbacki, Letrent, Smith, Moniak, while the 880-relay boys -- Kulbacki, Letrent, Moniak, Gruttaria -- placed fifth.

The other Warren County representative, Northern Area, was not listed among the winners.

WILDCATS SCORE 15-2 WIN

The Ludlow Wildcats made an early bid in their Penn-York circuit opener at Bradford Saturday by blasting out 18 hits for a 15-2 victory over the home nine.

Two-hit pitching by Larry Wilson for seven innings was a big factor in the Cats' win. At the plate it was Warren's John Castagnino and Kane's Jim Thompson who provided the power with four hits on six and five trips respectively. Both slammed out doubles along with Juban and Kulka.

PLAYGROUNDS OPEN JUNE 12

Announcement has been made by Fred Bell, director, that the Warren Borough playgrounds will open Tuesday, June 12, and will remain open daily until Friday, August 17, except for July 4. The hours will be consecutive from 10:00 a. m. until 8:30 p. m.

The playground supervisors for the season will be Dan Stimmel and Grace Germonto, Beaty; John Stachowiak and Ann Ruhling, Crescent; David Olson and Phyllis Putnam, Lacy; Gene Williams and Diane Lord, Memorial; Paul Myers and Carolyn Eddy, Mulberry; and Joseph Massa and Elizabeth Eddy, West Side. Fred Schultz and Dawn Taft will instruct arts and crafts. Part time supervisors will be Marilyn Vesling, Anita Dickerson and Nancy Clapp.

CITY SOFTBALL LOOP

In City Softball league action Nick's opened with a 19-6 decision over the New Baker's Cleaner squad, Texas walloped the New Process by a 22-6 score, and Certified downed Guiffre's by a 13-3 margin.

THE BEST SCORE posted by Warren women golfers in their weekly play was a 44 by Ellie Voigt. She also had low net in the first division, with Joan Carter second. Romaine Ericsson was first and Doris Hamilton second in the second flight. Gladys Arnold was first and Sally Gannoe second in the third.

In the kickers handicap action, Katy Fuellhart won the toss after a tie with Maude Blair in the first division. Merl Donaldson tied Mary Knapp and Betty Marymont in the second but won the toss. Gladys Arnold was the third division kickers winner.

Next week the ladies will shoot with partners out of their division, using the average score of the pair for competition purposes.

PITY POOR Ray Bluth, of St. Louis. He averaged 211 in the ABC Masters tournament but was second to Dick Hoover. He bowled 44 games, won 9 and lost 2 matches, but lost the big one to Hoover in the finals. Hoover averaged 209, but he collected $1175 for first money while Bluth got $875 for second.

Bill Lillard was the big boy in the ABC tournament. He broke all records with prizes totaling $2180.75, when he took the all-events, was a member of the winning Falstaff team, teamed with Stan Gifford for the doubles crown, and collected $159 for his 661 in the singles, plus a few specials.

A GROSS 38 was good enough to win first place for Chuck Blackman in the weekly golf tournament at the Conewango Valley Country Club last week. Hans Link copped the blind holes event with 12 for holes 2, 4, 6, and 8.

Other blind hole winners were Chuck Blackman, Carl Lundahl, Phil Pritchard, G. N. Hamilton, Dr. Arthur O'Connor, Nummy Lundahl, Tom Atwell, Heggies Schmidt, Harold Smith, John Trevenen, Harry Barley, and Howard Colt.

Today it is a low gross and low medal combination. Saturday they will shoot for the Marshall Parshall cup, and next Thursday it will be best ball of four.

COMBINED PLEASURES

Happy is the man who not only has more than one hobby, but has been able to combine them in a way that enables each to supplement the pleasure gained from the others. Some examples of this are so common that we accept them without realizing we have combined activities. The teaming up of boating and fishing is about as natural as you will find.

Boating is an activity which has escaped many of us because of the foul condition we find in too many stretches of our river, and the low water that exists a major share of the late warm weather months. But in limited fashion it is enjoyed on portions of our stream.

Down the line from Warren the cottages have blossomed into small communities and with cottages you will find boats of all kinds. The immediate area near these cottages sees everything from flat bottoms to outboards churning the river.

Outboard boating can be made into quite an adventure on a river such as the Allegheny. Many boats today are made light and safe. The aluminum variety has many which are air pocketed to assure their floating even when filled with water. And if you want to go adventuring up and down stream, they make much lighter hauling through riffles than was the case with some of the scows to which we once attached motors and chugged forth with a trolling line stretched out behind.

If your boat is made of wood, be certain the motor is not too powerful for the end plank to which it is attached. As was seen recently near Warren, when one life was lost, a heavy motor can tear out the rear board and let in the river. Some experts on boating say that this can be done with a sudden burst of speed by a motor that is too powerful for the boat end.

You can travel mighty light in a small boat and enjoy many hours of fun. A good tan is assured, swimming is all around you, and you can choose the most isolated of places for camping.

A stream will take you places roads and even paths do not reach. It will reveal wildlife and country you never would see in any other way. Few of us realize what the world around us looks like when viewed from a boat during a lengthy stay afloat.

COMBINING THE HOBBIES

This brings us back to the combination of hobbies other than those which are obvious. A boat will take you fishing, swimming, speeding, or just plain riding. But it can augment some other pleasure, also.

Think of the new horizons offered the cameraman in a boat. It is possible to sit quietly by while nature goes on its natural way before your eyes. Wildlife must have water, and there is very little of it you won't find near the river. An early morning coast downstream in isolated portions of the woodlands will reveal an inside peak into nature that you never will obtain by foot.

With a camera aboard, plus a telephoto lense, you can collect a picture album of the outdoors that will be of rare value.

Few trappers seem to realize the value of the boat. A much larger trapline can be handled and more portions of the shoreland reached than is possible by foot. An ambitious young man with a light boat could make himself enough money in a month of smart trapping to pay for the boat the first year.

If you want isolation, perhaps just to be alone, or maybe to read or write, try a boat. And in this day of modern radio, you can enjoy music or keep in touch with the world.

Look over your hobby list and be surprised how many of them could be tied in with a neat little craft on the river. It is a hobby that can become a medium for aiding you, in the enjoyment of others.

ROCKING AND ROLLING

It is not boating that reminds of rock and roll, though you might find some relationship, at least on a windy day. We had it driven at us by a recent tv program in which auditoriums of young people were shown hopping and jumping to the simple rock, rock of a leading band.

We have watched movies of African and other primitive people reacting to a simple basic beat, and allowing themselves to be worked into a frenzy by the dum, dum of the drums. Here we see it in civilized America.

It is not very complimentary to our degree of music appreciation. Thousands of young people who are openly bored by good music, respond to the simple, basic beat. They obviously have not been reached by good music or they would find it monotonous and good for little more than a dance step.

We do not condemn rock and roll. Maybe it will open new areas of pleasure to many who never have caught the rhythm of any other music. We cannot blame the young people for the failure of the older generation to provide music in a way that reaches them. The fact is that a big share of their elders who look down their noses at rock and roll are the first to turn off the radio or tv when classical music shows up. It bores them.

There is some good here if we make the best of it, even if we are frightened by the primitive reaction we find possible in the center of our civilization when a band works crowds of young people into an emotional frenzy.

CAPS AND GOWNS were issued to graduating seniors of Warren high in the school auditorium Tuesday by Principal Joseph Passaro and student assistants.

Members of the Class of 1956 will don their robes for the first time at the Baccalaureate services in the First Methodist church on Sunday evening.

PAUL STEINKAMP will be director of the Warren YMCA Boys' Camp to be held at Camp Sherwin on Lake Erie June 24 - July 1.

Warren General Hospital Raises Room Rates

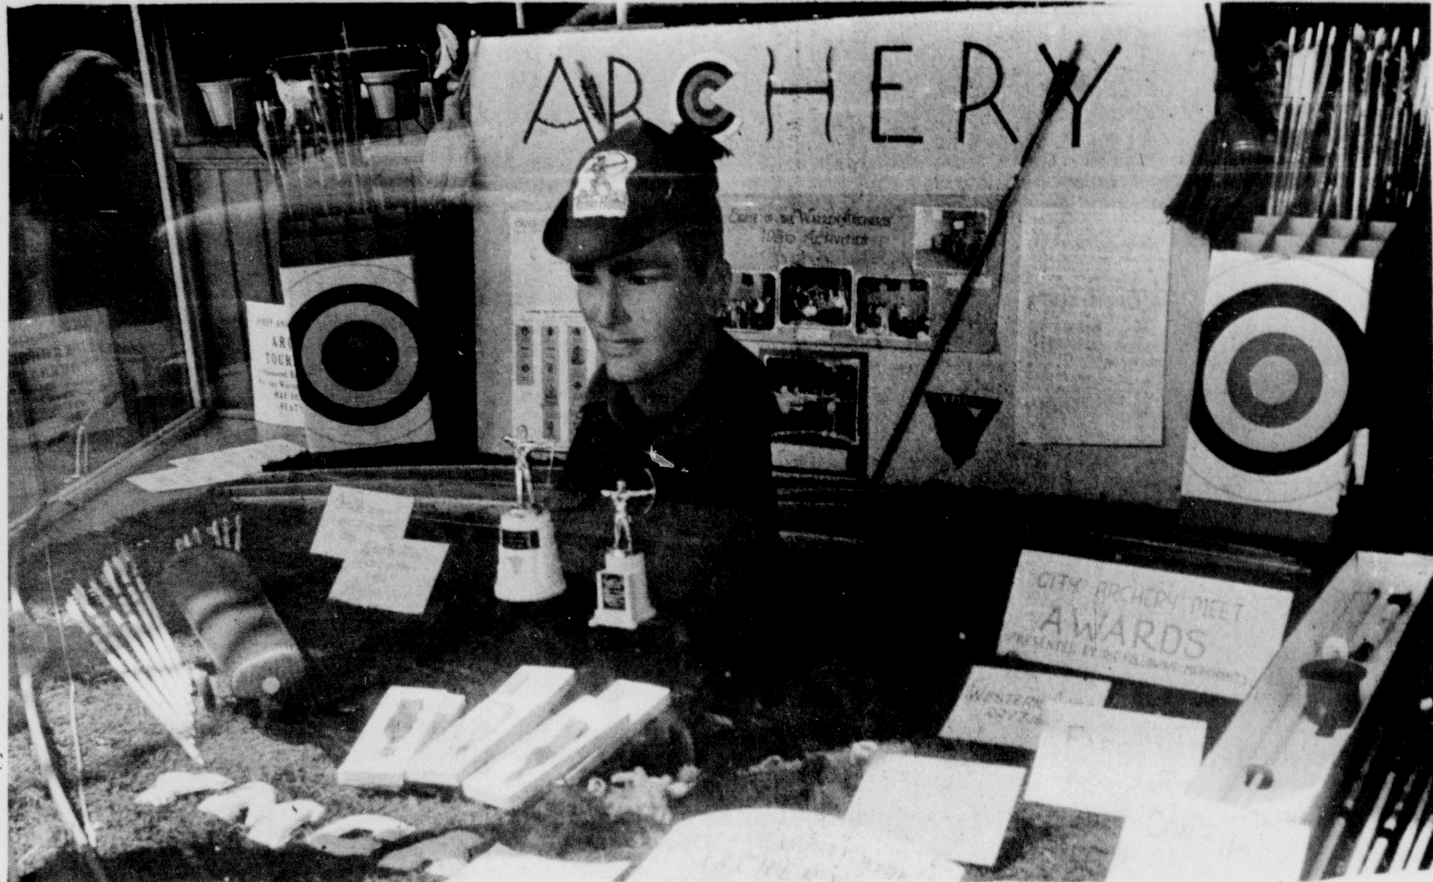

An increase in room rates will be effective in Warren General hospital soon as a result of action taken by the hospital's board of directors last week. The board also adopted a budget for the fiscal year that starts June 1 and approved a general practice residency program for the institution.

The increase is the first since February 1, 1953, and became necessary to meet the increased operating costs which were revealed in the new budget. The new rate structure, which will go into effect June 1, will bring the local institution up to the average charges of other hospitals in this region.

The increase will raise the rate for private rooms from $18 to $20, the $16 charge in the old section of the hospital to remain the same; semi-private rooms, $11 to $12.50; ward rates, $8.50 to $10. Outpatients will be charged $2 per visit instead of $1.

The board has also approved the establishment of a general practice residency program under the Council on Medical Education and Hospitals of the American Medical Association. With approval of the AMA Warren General hospital will have two resident doctors in training for two year periods for which they will have to receive credit.

President Robert O. Wilder has announced that the annual meeting of the hospital association will be held Tuesday, June 26, at which time seven persons will be elected to the board of directors. The Rev. Beecher M. Rutledge will serve as chairman of the nominating committee.

ARCHERY DISPLAY. In preparation for the archery meet which was scheduled for yesterday the Warren YMCA decorated the Wendelboe store window. Included were prizes to be awarded at the meet, and some arrows which local merchants donated to the Y archery program for next year. A few bows would be helpful, too, if any local enthusiasts want to give the young Robinhoods a boost.

Election Expenditures Require Controls

By Thomas L. Stokes

WASHINGTON. -- Very commendable and recommended for widespread imitation is the experiment of Alexandria, Minn., in its door-to-door canvass by a citizens' volunteer committee to raise money in small donations to finance political campaigns.

This is an attempt, as you recognize, to have voters themselves finance political campaigns to discourage the practice of big contributions from wealthy individuals and special interests in expectation of favored treatment from officeholders and administrators.

The fine reception and the spirit of cooperation demonstrated by the people of Alexandria speak well for extension of the plan elsewhere.
In the first two nights of house-to-house canvassing by 100 volunteers working in pairs, $799 was collected from 667 persons.

Under the Alexandria plan, organized by Byron G. Allen, Minnesota Commissioner of Agriculture, and former Democratic national committeeman, the money collected will be divided between the two parties on the basis of the total vote cast by each in the last general election.

This "Citizens March of Good Government", as it is called, was inspired by the revelation several weeks ago on the Senate floor here by Senator Francis Case (R., S.D.), in the debate on the natural gas bill, that an attempt was made by a representative of the Superior Oil Co. of California to donate $2,500 in cash to his campaign, which Case rejected.

This disclosure of how big interests seek to influence legislation through campaign contributions impelled President Eisenhower to veto the gas bill, you will remember.

You may have forgotten how it also provoked a specific investigation into the Case episode by a special Senate committee, which was long ago terminated, as well as authorization by the Senate of a general investigation of lobbying and introduction of a new corrupt practices bill to regulate campaign contributions and expenses.

You may have forgotten about some of these things, for your representatives here in the Senate have been dragging their feet on what they promised to do. They have been far less energetic in following up the Case incident than were the public-spirited folks of Alexandria, Minn., in taking a course that was available to them to cleanse campaign fund-raising methods.

For example, the widely-advertised and widely-heralded investigation of lobbying by a special Senate committee headed by Senator John McClellan (D., Ark.) still is in the staff-study stage after six weeks.
And only a few days ago did the committee decide to call in Howard Keck, president of Superior Oil Co.
for an executive session consultation to explore the full scope of political contributions by his company.

Unless the committee shows some vigor and initiative and gets going soon, it will confirm in the public mind the suspicion that the Senate has no intention of making a real investigation of the interests and influences that operate behind the scenes in Congress and in our elections.

Also still sleeping in the Senate Rules and Administration Committee -- and apparently slumbering soundly -- is the aforementioned bill to regulate campaign expenditures and require complete publicity of all contributions and expenses.
This bill was introduced jointly several weeks ago with much fanfare by the two party leaders in the Senate -- Senators Lyndon B.

Johnson (D., Tex.) and William F.
Knowland (R., Calif.)

Action along both fronts -- ex-posure of campaign financing abuses and corrective legislation -- is needed to show our people that Congress itself is interested in cleaning up the evils which affect it and both political parties as well as the public.

Such leadership from Congress, now so patently lacking, would serve to encourage citizens themselves to adopt small donations plans for financing campaigns in which Alexandria, Minn., has pioneered.

Fortune Magazine now adds another chapter in revelations of campaign financing methods in an article showing how laws forbidding campaign contributions by corporations are violated.

Corporations, the article says,
"cover up contributions by listing them in various expense accounts."

"The boss's secretary appears as the purchaser of blocks of tickets to $100-a-plate dinners. Executives contribute handsomely to campaign chests with the understanding that they will get their money back in bonuses."

There is much more detail, all of which should offer clues and leads to the Senate committee's investigators. The investigation might be prodded, too, if you wrote your Senator asking how come the Senate is not living up to its promises on campaign fund investigation and legislation.

Observations

By Bob Walsh

NO CONSIDERATION

You can blame whiskey, speed, and a few dozen other things for causing our large number of traffic accidents but we believe it narrows right down to a lack of consideration on the part of too many motorists. As we have said many times before in these columns, the man behind the wheel is not the same one you meet in the street or the living room. His manners are gone.

We often have wondered if this is the innate bully within us. Most of us are not loaded with enough muscle to shove the world around. We know there always is a bigger and tougher guy who will readily and happily bounce us on our head. It also pays to be polite in most cases. Bad manners show so plainly when we are not clothed with a car.

But put that car around us, give us loads of horsepower, a ton and a half of steel, and we really throw our weight. We take our spirit of competition and hustle into the street with broken fenders and bones resulting.

THOSE TURN SIGNALS

The most mis-used gadgets we have seen added to cars are the turn signals. There are those among us who seem convinced that if you tell the other fellow you intend to turn left he must wait while you do it. Where do you find that either in the law or the code of human ethics?

The turn signal indicates your direction, and if the driver coming in the other direction chooses to let you cut across the line he will signal you to do so. He also may be turning left, and by having the signals on both cars, traffic flow is facilitated. And the driver behind you also may be interested in your intentions, with a signal allowing him to pass on the left if you are going right.

But the signal gives you no right you do not already have. The other driver may be in a equal hurry, and his rights must be respected. The right-of-way is not determined by flashing lights on your own car.

WHO STOPS?

Another one who gets us is the driver who just can't stop his car even though there is room for only a single line of traffic. If the obstacle is on his side of the street it is his place to stop and let you drive through. But most of them bully their radiator into the lane and count on your giving up your right-of-way.

It seems to us that in the majority of cases when we have the right-of-way the other driver assumes he can take it from us without damages resulting. Fortunately, there are millions among us who will give up a right-of-way to avoid trouble, but quite often you read in the papers that such wasn't the case and names pop up in hospital lists and obituaries.

PLAIN CLOTHES CONSCIENCE

When American motorists develop manners the accident list will become very small. Little will be left to cause trouble other than mechanical failure and human error.

The best method of pricking a motorist's conscience is the presence of the law. More policemen prowling the streets and the highways would tone down the rambunctiousness of some who choose to ignore the rights of others. As it stands today, there are not enough cops, and the ones we do have are easily spotted.

It is amazing how quickly a motorist can alert himself to the presence of a police car. The make, shape, and color of the car becomes firmly impressed on his mind, and he can recognize it if it is a mile away or is only a speck in the corner of his eye.

Perhaps we should put some plain clothesmen on the job, and use a variety of strange cars. We know that it is impossible to drive the length of any major street or avenue in Warren without spotting traffic violations. It is doubtful if you very often drive a mile or more without several times saving yourself from harm by giving up your right-of-way. But put the police car on the street and all in sight become lambs.

Half the motorists must be maniacs and the other half compassionate souls. If it were not so the parking problem would be solved. The junk yards would take care of the situation.

YOUR NEXT HALF HOUR

What you intend to do during the next half hour will have little effect ten years from now, even though your next deal may be a comparatively large one. But it will make a great difference in the happiness of those nearest you — your wife, your child — if you'll stop to consider how you may provide for them.
